Cougars Play Canucks With Second in Mind

Eddie Dorohoy did his former teammates a good turn at Vancouver last night, and Victoria Cougars will do their best to take advantage of the gesture tonight when they host the Canucks at Memorial Arena.

The Pistol got a goal and an assist as Calgary Stampeders downed the Canucks, 3-1, for their third straight victory in a swing through the western division of the Western Hockey League.

As a result, the second-place Canucks are still only five points in front of the Cougars. Coach Pat Egan reported last night that the Cats, strengthened by the return of Stan Baliuk, are "ready to make our play for second place now."

Actually, the Cougars need a victory to make sure of staying in third spot. Spokane Spokes host Seattle tonight, and a win combined with a Cougar loss could send the Cougars tumbling to fourth.

However, Egan wasn't thinking in terms of losing as he listed his lineup for tonight's game.

BALIUK PLAYS

Baliuk will be used on a line with centre Gordie Wilson and rookie Don Blackburn. The other two lines will remain intact, with Doug Anderson centering for Doug Macaskey and Bruce Lea, and Gordie Haworth making the plays for George Ford and Al Nicholson.

Egan indicated that Baliuk's broken ankle had healed satisfactorily, but if Baliuk should be unable to play he will be replaced on the line by Enio Sclisizzi.

Karl Kaiser and Jim Hay will form one defensive unit in front of Marcel Pelletier, with Don McLeod and Ted Harris on the other.

FAST GAME

A crowd of 4,825 fans turned out to watch the Stampeders defeat the Canucks in the fastest game seen in Vancouver this season.

Calgary went ahead, 2-0, in the first period on goals by Dorohoy and Chuck Blair. Rookie Ron Howell rebounded for a Canuck goal in the second period, and Lou Jankowski rounded it out for Calgary in the third.

Dorohoy's 31st goal and his assist left him five points in front of Guyle Fielder of Seattle in the league's individual scoring race.

FINE EFFORT

Only a fine effort by both goaltenders kept the score down. Bruce Gamble, playing his first game for the Canucks since returning from a shot in the National Hockey League with New York Rangers, blocked 34 shots. Roy Edwards, the eastern division's all-star netminder, kicked out 33.

Edwards lost his shutout bid when Howell scored at 4.43 of the second period on a Vancouver power play.

Calgary—Goal, Edwards; defence, Hucul, Ward, Erickson, Robazzo; forwards, C. Blair, D. Blair, Hicks, Dorohoy, Hay Leopold, Jankowski Wilkie, Glover, Finney.

Vancouver—Goal, Gamble; defence, McNab, Douglas, Chevrier, Currie, Blaine; forwards, Cyr, Peacosh, Howell, Pearson, Hampson, Belisle Hutchinson, Lilley Robinson.

Quakers Back Up In Third

SASKATOON — Saskatoon Quakers went one point up on the Winnipeg Warriors last night in their battle for third place in the eastern division of the Western Hockey League, scoring twice in the second period for a 2-0 victory over the Warriors.

Lucien Dechene, who racked up his second shutout in three games, bested Winnipeg's Al Rollins in a goaltenders' duel, kicking out 23 shots.

GOOD ENOUGH

Elliot Chorley and defenceman Bill Bucyk beat Rollins in the second period, and that was good enough for Dechene, who has had his troubles in the Saskatoon nets this season.

Winnipeg veteran Bill Mosienko and rookie Dave Balon of Saskatoon clashed in the third period and each drew a minor, major and misconduct penalty.

FIRST PERIOD

No scoring.

Penalties: Wituik 4.22, Masnick 6.21, 19.59, Folk 14.25.

SECOND PERIOD

Kwong for Duncan And $10,000 Cash?

Edmonton Eskimos of the Western Interprovincial Football Union are perfectly willing to trade fullback Normie Kwong to B.C. Lions. All they want in return is Randy Duncan and $10,000.

Kwong was in Vancouver yesterday for a sportsmen's dinner, and indicated he would like to play for the Lions in 1959. Eskimo manager Keith Rolfe, perhaps with tongue in cheek, named his price.

Duncan, an all-American quarterback from Iowa, signed with the Lions for $35,000 for two seasons Thursday, and the club hails him as the greatest acquisition ever made by a Canadian football club. Rolfe claims he isn't at all impressed.

"Normie, even after 11 years of football, is still one of the Canadian game's greatest assets," he reported. "Let's say they can have him for Duncan and the difference between their salaries ($10,000). We don't want a rookie quarterback who would cost us $35,000 and might not make it. Kwong could make it with any club."

GENE FULLMER, former world middleweight champion, broke Wilf Greaves' 13-bout winning streak in New York last night, bulling his way to a split decision in their nationally-televised bout. Fullmer was given the fight 5-4-1 and 6-4 by judges but referee Harry Kessler saw it as a draw . . . Little Joe Jimenez took over first place in the $20,000 Texas Open golf tournament with a four-under-par 67 and a 36-hole total of 136 at San Antonio yesterday. Wes Ellis Jr., the first-round leader, shot a 71 to drop one stroke off the pace along with Sammy Reynolds . . . Holdout Whitey Ford of New York Yankees says he is satisfied with the club's latest offer of $35,000, but won't sign a contract because of a set of conditions relating to his health, behavior and care of his pitching arm.

BELLEVILLE McFARLANDS scored their 11th straight exhibition hockey victory yesterday, defeating a West German team, 20-1. The Macs, subject to much criticism for rough play on their exhibition tour, have been told by the Canadian Hockey Association to "use discretion" in future games . . . Sweden's national hockey team defeated the touring United States national club, 3-1, yesterday in Stockholm . . . Coach Vince Lombardi of Green Bay Packers, whose club lost out to B.C. Lions in the bidding for Randy Duncan, charged yesterday that "Duncan evidently didn't have the confidence" to play in the National Football League . . . Former heavyweight boxer Lee Savold, 43, has been taken off the critical list in a New Jersey hospital after a bout with high fever . . . Chicago Black Hawks of the National Hockey League have sent centre Norm Johnson to Montreal Canadiens' Rochester farm club to complete a deal made last fall . . . Medical examination shows that Hal Patterson's knee injury, which sidelined the Montreal Alouette star for the Big Four playoffs, has been completely cured, and Patterson will be ready for football training camp in July.

Fuller Rink Stands Alone

By JIM TANG
Colonist Sports Editor

ALBERNI—Bob Fuller's Nanaimo quartet was the only unbeaten rink last night as the Alberni Valley Curling Club bonspiel went into the late draws.

Fuller, who has now advanced to the fours of the MacKenzie primary event and the eights of the Colonist Challenge primary event, had a 5-0 record.

Two Victoria rinks, Sid Thomson and Gar Taylor, each had won five while losing just once.

Rinks reaching the fours of the MacKenzie event were Jules Wenezenki, Agnar Bergman, both of the Alberni Valley Curling Club, Sid Thomson of Victoria and Bob Fuller.

In the eights of the Colonist Challenge event were Ben Britz of Chilliwack, Bill Morrow of Vancouver, Gar Taylor, Bob Fuller, and AVCC rinks skipped by Warren Paul, Bob Cummings, Gunnar Molander and J. Grant.

REACH FOURS

Paul, George Folkard of the AVCC, Cumming and Taylor had reached the fours of the Woodward event, secondary to the MacKenzie event.

Advancing to the eights of the T. Eaton secondary event were rinks skipped by Thomson, Jim Tang and Gary Leibel, all of Victoria, Annis Stukus of Vancouver and Bryce Blake, Paul Melnick, Ed Filipchuk and Harry Stirzaker, all of the AVCC.

Victoria School Quintets Duncan Tourney Winners

DUNCAN (Special) — Three Greater Victoria teams, including the defending champion Victoria High Totems, posted first-round victories here last night in the Lower Island high school basketball tournament.

Totems, heavy favorites to win the Island title again this year, trounced Cowichan High of Duncan, 57-17. Esquimalt Dockers, winners of the Victoria city league, defeated Lake Cowichan, 33-21, while Oak Bay Greens downed Ladysmith, 37-16. Chemainus, which won the mid-Island tournament last weekend, beat Belmont, 32-25, in the other game.

Luck of the draw may knock one Victoria team out of contention in today's second round, when the powerful Totems play Oak Bay. In other second-round games, Lake Cowichan plays Belmont, Ladysmith meets Cowichan, and Esquimalt takes on Chemainus.

Third and final round will be played tonight starting at 6.30, with the top five teams advancing to the Island playdowns next weekend against three north Island representatives at Esquimalt High School gym.

Totems flashed a well-balanced attack against Cowichan High, building up a 26-6 lead in the first half. The Vic High team finished strongly to blank Duncan, 17-0, in the final quarter. Dave Nelson was high scorer with 10 points.

Malcolm Mitchell was high scorer for the Dockers with 10 points. Esquimalt had a 13-6 lead at half-time.

One of the feature attractions of the round turned out to be in the one game that Victoria area teams lost. Bill Spotswood scored 21 of Belmont's 25 points in a one-man-gang effort against Chemainus, and the Belmont club led 14-10 at the half.

But Chemainus, paced by Harry Glasswick and Ray Vater with 10 points each, finished strongly to strengthen its chances of a berth in the Island competition.

Wayne Farmer was the sparkplug in the Oak Bay victory with 13 points.
